Frogmore has recruited Cushman & Wakefield retail capital markets partner Chris White.

White joined Cushman from Strutt & Parker in 2015.

He has over 12 years' experience and has worked on a number of high profile transactions including the sale of Eastgate Centre in Basildon for British Land, the sale of The Lanes in Carlisle for Aviva and the purchases of Green Lanes in Barnstaple for Rockspring and Northfield Shopping Centre for LaSalle Investment Management.

Patrick Knapman, Head of UK Retail Capital Markets, said: "We thank Chris for his contribution to the firm and look forward to working closely with him in his new client-side role at Frogmore."
