■ Win Champions League tickets to see Arsenal by uncovering our imposter

PROPERTY WEEK AND CHARITY THE WILLOW FOUNDATION have teamed up for a competition that will raise much-needed funds to enable young people with serious illnesses to enjoy special days out.

All you have to do is tell us which well-known property man is sitting within this 2006/07 Arsenal team group. To make the task even easier, our rogue gunner is also shown in Ludgate on our back page today.

Send your answers to Giles Barrie, editor, Property Week, Ludgate House, 245 Blackfriars Road, London SE1 9UY, enclosing a cheque for £10 payable to The Willow Foundation, by 22 September.

We will then draw a winner who will be given two free halfway line tickets at Arsenal's spanking new Emirates Stadium for a Champions League game this autumn. ■
