PATHWAYS TO PROPERTY

Every day we are influenced by the built environment around us – shops, offices, industrial buildings, houses and the surrounding countryside all have an impact on the way we live. Did you ever wonder how these properties are developed, whether the buildings going up in our cities are sustainable or how much they are worth? Join us on the Pathways to Property programme to find out more.

Summer School

What will I be doing?

- Attend taster lectures
- Go on site visits
- Complete a group project
- Meet key employers at a careers event
- Experience life on the University of Reading campus.

Who can apply?

Open to all year 12 students who attend (and have always attended) a state-funded school or college in the UK.

The next Summer School takes place from 19–22 July 2021 and applications are now open! Apply at: www.henley.ac.uk/research/academic-areas/real-estate-and-planning/rref/pathways-to-property

“The four-day Summer School experience opened my eyes to the various career options available in the sector and really sparked my interest in property.

Bradley, Summer School participant

After the Summer School?

- Take part in a work experience placement
- Receive further support through e-mentoring
- Financial support if you study Real Estate and Planning at the University of Reading.

Cost

The Summer School is free to attend. Food, accommodation and travel costs are covered.

“Summer School has exceeded my expectations. It has been very informative whilst being really fun. The activities have been great and I am so glad I have attended.
